

2022 NATIONAL CONFERENCE SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

We are the only association dedicated to corporate foodservice and workplace hospitality, the employee services that drive productivity and boost morale. Our members — over 600 individuals and 300 companies strong — oversee workplace cafés and executive dining facilities. They also oversee onsite services like vending, catering, health and wellness initiatives, conference centers and audio-visual services... and represent two billion meals annually and $13 billion in annual sales. Through the SHFM National Conference, you reach these decision-makers at our largest event, with high visibility and direct access to our members. Build the sales relationships that last.

QUESTIONS?

Would you like a little one-on-one time with a representative from our Diamond level contract management companies?

That opportunity exists with the SHFM Annual and National Conference sponsorship program at the Diamond and Platinum levels. Here's how it works:

- With an executed Annual or National Conference sponsorship at the Diamond or Platinum level, you will have access to a representative from one or more of our Diamond Sponsor contract management companies listed above. Take advantage of this opportunity to discuss your product(s) and the process by which you might be included in their purchasing programs. While SHFM does not guarantee your product(s) will be purchased, this benefit provides you access to key individuals in the purchasing arenas.
- The meeting(s) will be scheduled in advance to take place virtually or onsite during an event.
