PRESIDENTS QUARTERLY

KATHY SANDERS | VP,
COMMERCE, CMMA

SFM INSIGHT:

the first board meeting of the year… so much enthusiasm, so many great, creative ideas, and such much effort and Perhaps handing over the gavel to Owen Moore! No, seriously, I think it was looking ahead into what could be and am privileged to work with every day.

Well, my existing company at the time (Wachovia) no longer exists due to the acquisition by Wells Fargo.

Looking back, is there anything you would have done differently?

ASSOCIATION INSIGHT:

the latest developments in nutrition and technology to offer our clients solutions that are customized to their specific intensely focused on proving that we can be a significant lever in driving peak performance. We research and deliver a company's culture — a happiness equation. Our strength is listening to the needs and assessing the unique and collaboration through the café. Guckenheimer is a partner in business and an effective tool for improving your customers?

In many industries there is a substantial challenge to attract and retain the very best talent. Real estate and human beINGS OF LEADERSHIP:

•
•
•

What is the best meal you've ever eaten?

What is a common challenge within your industry?

What are your goals as the current Vice President for CMMA?

Do you see the digital revolution as an opportunity to grow the foodservice industry?

You mentioned some of the challenges you faced with mobile technology. Can you share some lessons learned?